Editorial

Our editor?!?!

All the reports are in, the pages completed, and now it is my turn. What can I say? It has been a trying year, and not a group of people realize this more than the yearbook staff. I would like to take this opportunity to thank a select few. To begin with, my little helpers, especially the ones who stayed so late to put this yearbook together for you, Mrs. Sharpe, my yearbook advisor, and all my photographers, for without you this yearbook would be pictureless.

Every year the yearbook is dedicated to someone, or something, and part of my job as editor is to decide to whom or what this edition of Optima Anni shall be dedicated to. After much thought I have decided that to dedicate it to the graduating class would be nice, but it has been done before, the student body, well, this is for you, but not exactly what I had in mind, and finally it came to me. This year's yearbook is dedicated to the good times we have shared, the old glass passage-way, the day the grade twelves wore long underwear to our Friday Assembly, Junior School dressing for an arctic blizzard just to join us, and the heat turned off, and the clothes piled on. In short, Optima Anni '80 is dedicated to memories.

Here is to you, hoping that this book will bring back great memories of a great time together.

My best to all of you,
Sue Graham
Editor

Headmaster's Report

Your editor has just forcefully told me that my report is required by December 1st - so I must do as I am told. Here goes!!

I sincerely hope that by the time this edition of Optima Anni is ready for printing we shall all be enjoying the new facilities. The new Library, multi-purpose room, added classrooms and main foyer will indeed add a great deal to our school. More than anything else it will give us a focal point and allow for better communication and "flow" all around.

We are truly fortunate to have a Board of Governors with a progressive outlook. They are dedicated to the development of our school to make it the best of its kind in Canada.

In my estimation we are already a front runner.

Our "balanced" programmes of study allow a girl to develop to her full potential and we are as an extended family a group of people (a community) conscientiously dedicated to a common purpose.

I am confident you will all enjoy this year of "growth" and equally confident that in years to come you will open this book and be reminded of happy times and good school days.

Every best wish,

Sincerely,

N. Thomas Russell

Headmaster

Board of Governors

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD: John D. Shanski

GOVERNORS: Mrs. T.A. Burrows, Mrs. R.G. Graham, Mr. R.E. Rivalin, Mr. John E. Carstairs, Mrs. A.S. Leach, Jr., Mr. D. Donald Ross, Mr. A.C. DeFehr, Mr. James E. Matthews, Mr. Jack M. Ross, Mr. C.H.C. Edwards, Q.C., Mr. R.B. Murray, Mr. Thomas Sidebottom, Mr. R.B. May, Rev. B.D. Roberts, Mr. Hugh Ellis, Mr. M.F.B. Nesbitt.

On behalf of the Board of Governors it is my pleasure to congratulate the girls who are graduating from our school this year. I must thank the entire student body for their patience and understanding throughout the year.

It was a year of progress for our school on two points. Firstly, the graduating class was a delight and a pleasure, and a truly great representative to carry on the traditions of Balmoral Hall. Secondly, Balmoral Hall has expanded its facilities with the addition of our new Library and auxiliary facilities.

Balmoral Hall has always been a school where the spirit of the school has been first and foremost in providing the drive and impetus behind the school's success. This year was no different, as the student's enthusiasm was again the prime reason in promoting an educational form which fosters both participation and excellence.

To those who will be graduating I extend my personal congratulations and best wishes for the paths they have chosen and to those who remain with us, we will see you all in September.

I know I speak for all Board members when I say it has been our pleasure to serve as your Board of Governors for this past year and we are looking forward to the challenges of next year.

John D. Shanski,
Chairman,
Board of Governors

Miss Bish

Head Girl and School Captain

At long last the end of 1979 has come and Balmoral Hall is confronting 1980 with great vigour and enthusiasm. A fine example of this energy is our yearbook editor who seems to have a way with idle threats. Well here's our report Susan, on the year that Optima Anni '80 is all about.

This year has been one of change for the student council. It has a new Chairperson and it now functions in accordance with the constitution drafted by the executive council and completed by the student council.

We have tried to stress over all support and involvement in our extracurricular activities. These two very important aspects of school spirit were achieved in the first term by such events as Shinerama, B.I.D., a Hallowe'en Extravaganza, a teacher-student volleyball game and a roller-skating party.

1980 promises more fun with such events as a "Successful" dance with the PUMPS, a winter carnival and another roller-skating party.

1979-80 has been B.H. in its highest spirits ever. Not only is this tremendous enthusiasm due to the events planned by the student council, but it is also due to the students who participated in these events. The old saying, "You only get out of things what you put into them", most definitely applies to this school year. We would like to thank you, the student body, for making this one of the best years that B.H. has ever had.

We would also like to extend a special thanks to our second family, the executive council. By fulfilling their duties, they made our jobs less strenuous and much more pleasant to carry out. We couldn't forget the Student Council. Thanks guys, you were a great group to work with.

Well, as chairpersons of the Executive and Student Councils, we thank you for making this a fabulous year for us and as Graduates we warn you the class of '80 will be back.

All our love, and Best Wishes for the years to come,

Ed and Marilyn.

Residence

Residence Report

The first few days of school in residence, the new girls feel lost in the strange surroundings, as old friendships reacquaint, new friendships develop. The year progresses and everyone becomes more comfortable in their surroundings. They learn of other girls' homes and different lifestyles. But, soon the school year comes to an end. Those girls that don't return will always remember the good times and great friends they had at Balmoral Hall.

Good luck to all of you,

Marion.

and

CONSTRUCTION AT THE SCHOOL

As we all arrived for the first day of school, something very different, and exciting was taking place. The overpass had been knocked down, and all that was left was cement, debris and a handful of men at work. It was a thrill to most of us, because the construction of our new library was underway. Even more interesting were discussions on the advantages and disadvantages of construction during school hours. Could we possibly have a few classes cut short? Would we be privileged with outdoor classes during the spring term? ... The list went on and on. But as always, the school had settled all those "problems" and the year began with a smooth start. However, by midwinter the school's heating system was turned off, so we gave ourselves the privilege of longjohns and other cozy attire for a few days. There were also the long but quick trots through snow drifts to the office, the continuous ringing on the construction telephone, men trundling about their work, several warnings ... Now that the construction is almost complete, and things are looking quite attractive, we can see it was all worth our while - and patience!

THIS MOMENT

I may never see tomorrow
There's no written guarantee
And things that happened yesterday
Belong to history.

I cannot predict the future
And I cannot change the past
I just have this moment
I must treat it as my last.

I must use this moment wisely
For it soon will pass away
And be lost to me forever
As part of yesterday.

I must exercise compassion
Help the fallen to their feet
Be a friend unto the friendless
Make an empty life complete.

I must make this moment precious
For it will never come again
And I can never be content
With things that might have been.

Kind words I fail to say
This day may never be unsaid
For I know not how short
May be the path that lies ahead.

The unkind things I do
Today may never be undone
And friendship that I fail to win
May never more be won.

I may not have another
Bended knee to pray
And thank my God with humble heart
For giving me this day.

I may never see tomorrow
But this moment is my own
It's mine to use or cast aside
The choice is mine alone.

I have just this precious moment
In the sunlight of today
Where the dawning of tomorrow
Meets the dusk of yesterday.

A CHILD'S VIEW

A child is trusting
A child is kind
A child has no
Evil thoughts in his mind
If everyone would trust
Like the child at birth
Hunger would vanish,
Peace would live on earth.

MY UPS AND DOWNS

Although I am a protozoan I have likes dislikes, just like humans. I like to just float around in water. I have heard people say my whole name is "Ameoba discoides", but my friends just call me Ameoba and I wish researchers would call me that too. I just can't stand it when scientists put me under the glare of the microscope's light! It's so hard to live under such conditions, so I just float around doing nothing. Then the scientists ask, "What's the matter with our specimen of 'Amoeba discoides'?" Apart from the microscope, what I do like is that there are lots of bacteria and other gourmet foods in the water. The scientists are very careful with me and I do appreciate that, my home is not very luxurious, but it is fairly comfortable. The water is fairly hard but O.K., I suppose. They keep changing the water, so I get a lot of good food and I enjoy that. The only thing I like about going under the microscope is that the light warms my home and food. Personally, I think bacteria tastes better heated, so sometimes I look forward to going under the microscope. Sometimes the scientists are nice and let me have visitors. It's fun to have visitors, but then my friends and I are under the microscope again and we can't catch up on gossip. Well, I guess I am pretty lucky to have a new house every two days and plenty of food, but I'll never understand humans and why they constantly shove me under those microscopes.

LIFE

Life is a beautiful gift,
Given to us by the most worldly creature, - God.
To him we must be thankful;
Thankful for this short time he gives us to leave our mark,
Thankful for the happiness he gives to us,
And for the strength when there is sadness.

Life never ends, even when ones who are close to us die;
For we never forget them; in our time of need, they are there.
They never leave our memories,
And our love for them never leaves our heart.

So as you see, one's time on earth, although sometimes short is never forgotten
Their life, to someone has been very meaningful
And never will this beautiful gift of life be forgotten.

OLD FRIENDSHIPS AND SWEET MEMORIES ...

Like well-worn pages in some cherished books
Old Friendships grow more precious with the years
Like flowers pressed in pages of a book.
Old Friendships are well worn but sweet.

Like pages long turned yellow with the time,
Old memories are so often stained with tears.
And often thoughts go drifting back once more
To well-known spots where old friends used to meet.

Friendship is like a marathon.
True Friendship comes when physical separation
Can no longer bring two people's hearts apart
Within fond hearts, where nothing can destroy
Old Friendships live forever and a day.

Rise up and shine you Raven scruffs
To beat us will be very tough,
In black or brown
All over town
We'll do our thing
Better than Ming!

We challenge you with all our might,
To top us you will have to fight,
Marcus and Angela do your best
To give your listless workers zest.

B.H. will put you to the test
Cause we are better than the rest,
We've won before and beat you hollow,
Defeat we know is hard to swallow.
But TRY and TRY, you dare not pause
For 'tis all for a worthy cause.

We all agreed it was a crime
For the B.H. girls to write that rhyme
All said in letter was untrue,
In response we say to you:

We accept your challenge true,
We'll raise more money than ever could you
Edith and her motley crew
We'll find themselves in a green plaid stew.

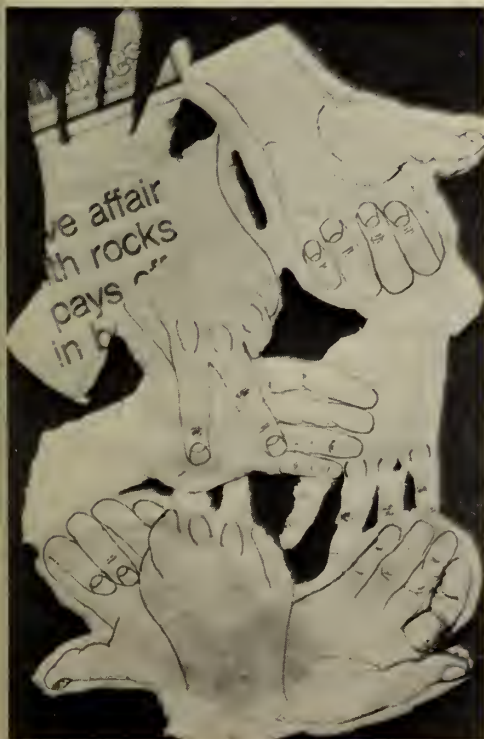

If shining shoes is where it's at
We're sure to be the best at that!
Everyone knows S.J.R. is supreme,
The shoes that we shine are bound to gleam.

We have no cause to be down,
For "No one wears shoes in your part of town".
Surely you jest, you're not number one
For we're the best and we've practically won.

Let all be silent, we rest our case.
S.J.R. will be the victor of the race.

from: NUMBER ONE!!!

Guess what, B.H.? We're No. 1!!!

Amazing isn't it the way time flies
Before you realize, your life's gone by

It seems like yesterday that you were ten
You're graduating now, it seems hard to comprehend

Well it's difficult as well
That you won't be here for that September bell

Your laughter and achievements will be with us no more
Just the memories that linger around every door

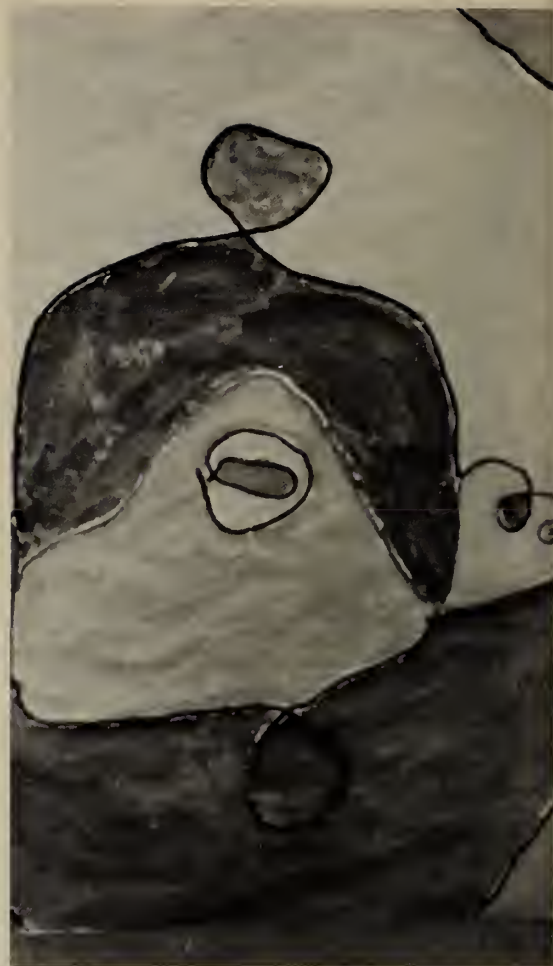

The friendship made will be lost in the rain
It's not your fault, it's the miles to blame

You will each separate and go your own way
But possibly a re-union - maybe some day?

You seem to stall, then utter a sigh
You say so long, catch you later, but never goodbye

May luck be with you, and watch your fate
You'll be missed truly in the halls of B.H.

MY LIFE

My life is absolutely boring. It's dull, unexciting and short; but I'll tell you about it anyway. I live in a little isolated village and I don't like it.

All of my friends have had such exciting days. They've travelled all the way around the world! Some travel in planes some in trains; many travel by ship, and even more by truck. They've seen the Atlantic Ocean, the Pacific Ocean, the Indian Ocean, and the Arctic Ocean. My friends have travelled to Europe, to Asia, to Australia, and even to Africa! Many have seen all seven wonders of the world.

Furthermore, my friends and family are all good-looking, except me. They have the most beautiful faces. My sister has a rose face, my mother has a butterfly face, and my father has a horse face.

To add to all this, my friends are all expensive and elegant. They're all worth $1.00, $2.00 even.

I'm so unlucky. First of all, there's travelling. I've travelled from 1001 Waterdon Ave. to 606 Waterdon Ave., and that's the end of my glamorous journeys.

Next comes looks. I'm handsome enough, I'll admit it, but the problem is that nobody else seems to think so. The girls won't look at me even twice, and it isn't very pleasant having a picture of the Queen printed across your face.

Lastly comes the fact that I'm not that expensive. I'm worth 2¢ and that doesn't do much to boost my ego.

Oh! Why was I ever born a postage stamp??

SPRING AT BALMORAL HALL

When spring arrives at Balmoral Hall all the girls are like butterflies coming out of their cocoons. The long cold dreary winter is over. The girls prepare for sunbathing while they wave at the men in speed boats going down the river. Spring is also the time when Mrs. Harper starts everyone running the mile. Each year she seems to add on a few extra yards. Spring also means May Day, with the younger girls skipping around the maypole, and the older girls serving lunch and tea to the fathers and mothers. Much gossip is heard at this time. Who is bringing whom tea and wearing what to the annual graduation dinner and dance? The teachers start to prepare our exams, while students try to cram what they've learnt in five months into their heads in one day. With spring being so hot this year, girls are feeling sweaty, while the teachers try to open as many windows as possible without losing their cool. So it seems that all the vitality that the girls lack in winter, seems to return when spring arrives at Balmoral Hall.

The Annual U.O.M.M.U. Awards for 1979

TEN OUTSTANDING MIRTH AND MERIT YULETIDE AWARDS

After weeks, months and in some cases years of very careful research, spying, prying, and asking silly sounding questions, I HAVE COME UP WITH THIS YEAR'S AWARDS ... AWARD NO. 1: MISS PERSONALITY, 1979 She abounds in energy enough to make Albertans blush; she is vulpine, vital, vigorous, voracious, vocal, but not vulgar ... She has long legs a long reach and performs a super ROBOT ... Yes ... Miss Personality, 1979: RUTH KARINDA. AWARD NO. 2: MISS MOTHER HEN, 1979 Now, most any school day, around 3:38 you may well see a matronly looking young lady, dressed up in a long fur coat, carrying orange juice and cookies over to the basement of J.S. being followed by a swarm of tartaned young off-springs (like the Pied Piper - of course we have no rats at B.H.) MISS MOTHER HEN, 1979: LYNN PREMACHUK. AWARD NO. 3: MISS BUNNY, 1979 There's hop-a-long Cassidy, hop, skip and jump, People who make you hopping mad and those who just seem to hop from here to there day in and day out. Our Bunny is none other than "Bugs Bunny" our winner ... MISS BUNNY, 1979: SHELLEY RANCE. AWARD NO. 4: MISS PHONEY, 1979 Please be silent and listen; do you hear bells ringing from afar: from the West they seem to come. The bells of St. Michaels. MISS PHONEY, 1979: JANET CHADNEY AWARD NO. 5: MISS NOTE, 1979: Miss Note now there's a key to the situation and this cord is another, let there be music; good music played by a quiet, competent, talented young lady from the East ... MISS NOTE, 1979: EVA FUNG. AWARD NO. 6: MISS AZE, 1979: Miss Aze you say: what do you mean. I apologize because As are not good enough for the young lady ... and here is another clue As the immortal Bard would say "OILS WELL THAT ENDS WELL" MISS AZE 1979: SHIDEH KHORASHEH. AWARD NO. 7: MISS ROMANCE, 1979 It's raining ... a young man dressed in white is stepping out ... he is dark with a slight mexican-style moustache ... he's about to put his life on the line .. who is she ... well I thought you'd never ask ... she's none other than our MISS ROMANCE 1979: CECILY SHELDON. AWARD NO. 8: MISS EAR, 1979: Nothing personal intended, but then it is very, very personal. This young lady has an ear to lend (not like the Romans and their countrymen) but an ear to listen to people; and then to help them, calm them ... MISS EAR, 1979; CONNIE RIGERT. AWARD NO. 9: MISS DRY, 1979: Some people have a sense of humour that is hard to take; hard to understand, hard to grasp ... a dry, subtle too subtle sense of humour ... MISS DRY, 1979: MAUREEN HOuseton. The last award ... as usual goes to a staff member. Here's a quote, from WELLINGTON ... you know the man who invented those rubber boots that people wear Wellington beat Napoleon in battle ... and said "He has met his Waterloo at last". We have been privileged to have with us for this term a super young person from the University of Waterloo and she gets the staff award this year. I have chosen for Karen a book on Winnipeg for her to remember us and the place in years to come. The WELLINGTON AWARD goes to ... MISS KAREN EHRENTAULT.

Ballater

Fellow Ballaterites,

Here is the end of another year and a good one at that. We put up an excellent fight, and finished first in Senior School. Many thanks to Catherine Murray, and Fiona Murray, our 9-10, and 7-8 househeads. What a coincidence, all three Murray's on Sports Council. Good luck in the future, and good luck next year.

Lots of Love,
Joc.

Braemar

Well, Braemar, another year has come and gone, and with it went some of my most cherished memories. Our house has been noted as one of the 'Funest' to play and we have kept up our friendly yet competitive attitude.

I would like to thank each member, but special thanks must go to Lynn, Mary-Lea and Carla. These three girls have been Fantastic. Their enthusiasm and cheerfulness really hit the spot when Braemar was "Blue!"

I must say it is hard to leave all of you, but I thank you for giving me my best year at B.H.

Keep on Sluggin'

Hi Glen Gairners! Well, we made it through one more year. We put up a good fight and came close to finishing first again this year. Keep up the good work, excellent spirit, and the winning attitude, and remember, "Don't got too pooped!!"

Glen Gairn

Craig Gowan

My Dear Craig Gowanites,

What can I say? This year, 1979-1980 has been truly a fantastic year in the history of our great house. The athletic prowess exhibited this past year can only be equaled by the depth of energy and enthusiasm. Talk about a house with spirit! When I'd thought that I had drawn from the bottom of the bottom of my spirit reserves, I found that I could count on yours because you were seemingly endless. From day one, you guys were devoted and enthusiastic as well as sports-minded athletes. Characteristics like these are things of which winners are made, and so we proved to be. Not only did you teach me a thing or two about spirit, but you left me with some valuable information about people.

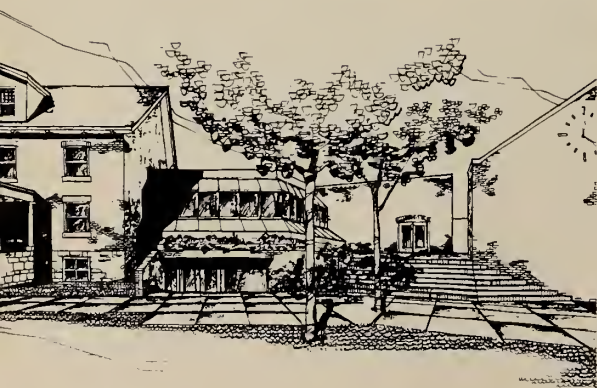

I can't close without thanking our spirit-boosters and leaders; Ruth Ackerman, Craig Gowens Junior School rep., and Andrea Rivalin our 9-10 rep.

Thank you, Craig Gowan
for a great year.

Good Luck next year Barb, Big Bird and fellow Craig Gowanites.

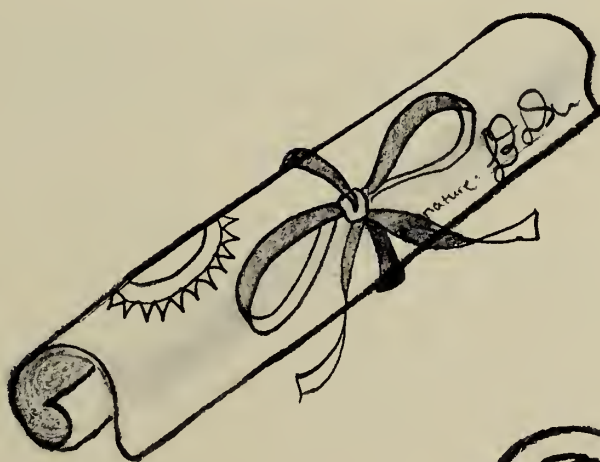

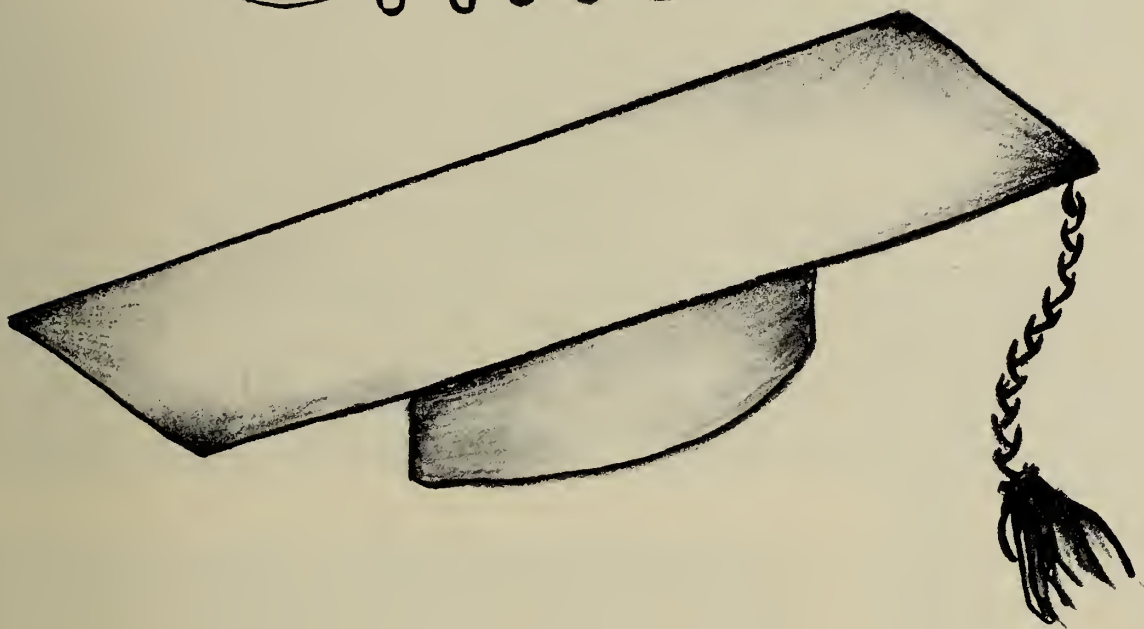

Love Megan.

1980 Graduates: Jane, Laurie

JANE KELLOCK: As Balmoral's "Special K" for five years, Jane has been a very active member of the school volleyball and basketball teams throughout her time spent here. She never did get enough volleyball, however, and joined a city team in grade 11. Jane is as quick to defend her hometown team, the Edmonton Eskimos, rah, rah, rah, as she was quick on the track, wow, look at those muscles! She endured residence life for a grand total of four years and one month. Jane did have a few second homes during that time though. Most were identified by their smooth, soft floor, and the identical footwear occupying the shelves. May I have this dance, oh Queen of the roller rink? Jane's involvement in athletics, choir, and this year model parliament all indicate a spirit which well deserves the achievement awards she has received for the past four years. Have fun at University of Alberta next year Jane, and may you always win your case.

EDITH PEASE: Edith joined our humble home four short years ago. It didn't take long for Ed to get into the swing of things, because as Mrs. H. once said, "Edith Pease on the top bunk." Ed became yearbook editor in grade eleven, and did an excellent job at it. And in her graduating year she led the school as Head Girl. Edith lived in residence, but could frequently be found at "Granny Boat's" on weekends. This year however, she was usually found delivering announcements, or passing on messages, and could always be heard throughout the halls, "Pi, pow pare pou?" Edith will be long remembered as she headed one of this school's most productive student bodies. Good luck in the future, and we'll never forget you!!!

LAURIE PAN: Laurie the daughter of Peter Pan arrived on residence's doorstep three years ago, from Kenora, Ontario. Since then she has filled our halls with smiles and has participated in various activities. As this years Glen Gairn house head, Laurie successfully fought, along with her house to shine in all intra-mural. Laurie has also shined in the in the area of musical talent, piano, which we all will remember. Laurie also has a flame for the sciences and has mastered this in appearance with numerous technical machines such as different shaped calculators, talking ink pens, and mini cameras. Laurie's perky "good mornings" will be missed by the grade 12's as she goes out west to Alberta to study engineering. Good luck Laurie and take care! Keep on shining!!

Edith, Nicola, Marilyn, Barb

DIANE SIDEBOTTOM: Bottom-side "beetled" her way in to B.H. in Grade 8. As the proud pilot of the pregnant fish bowl she arrived every morning all the way from Southdale. Di-Si's root originated from Salisbury House and under the gym-stairs. In Grade 10 and 11 she jogged her way to Squires and was finally crowned Miss Coffee Queen 1986. As a Junior french fan and a senior mathematician, she always used her privileges well. "Househead Diane," and her sidekick Bernadette made a super-sportsful '80 for Braemar House. She kept all of us enthralled with her tales of far away places and her school uniform variations. Diane hopes to have a successful career in Fine Arts after a few years at Sheridan College. Ta, Diane! Take care.

NICOLA MURRAY: Nicola first made her appearance at B.H. in Grade 5 and spent 8 years here. Nicola arrived a quiet and shy girl, and is leaving the party queen of the grade twelve year. Nicola was captain of the volleyball team this year. Nic was also a member of executive council this year as well as head of the Sports Council. Nicola successfully ran both the track meet and swim meets, and will take her abilities to The Sorbonne in Paris next year. There she will take a general French course in ancient and modern French civilization. Have a good year Nicola and Bonne Chance!!

MARILYN LAW: Our vivacious School Captain is a six year veteran of B.H. For years she has been an ardent member of the B.H. Blazers volleyball team. As well, she has shone in academics, maintaining her honour roll standing for six years. Marilyn has always been an energetic member of Glen Gairn House and her enthusiasm will be missed next year. As School Captain Marilyn helped to organize many student activities this year. Including the most successful school dance B.H. has ever seen. Next year, Marilyn will be attending the U of M where her giggle so familiar to our Halls will be resounding through theirs. At the U of M Marilyn will major in Law. Later she plans to go on to a career in law, where we know she will be a success. See you in court Marilyn!

BARB COX: Barbara-Jean is a 2-year veteran of Balmoral Hall life, she decided to live in Winnipeg so that she could tell us her wild bus ride stories! B.J. likes to summer at the lodge. Dish pan hands was only a fringe-benefit, right Barb?!? She was first runner up for the Squire's queen and also she frequented Lombard cafe with pen in hand. Her tales of home, Lynn Lake, were always unique and often contained the character D... Barb plans to further her education at College, with a few lodge summers inbetween. Residence will miss four Mags Barb and everyone will miss your smile.

JANET CHADNEY: Janet joined us this year for her first and last. Although she was a "new girl" she didn't stay that way for long. Jan was quick to become well known which was helped a great deal by her stay in residence. Jan was frequently heard talking about the famous "Amir". Joining the B.H. family from Saudi Arabia Jan was full of many tales of pharoahs and tombs. Janet has left us now but the memories linger on!

Jan, Diane, Sue, Chris, Neeru

JILL BRADLEY: Jill is a newcomer this year from Vancouver. Quiet at the start of the year, she soon displayed herself as being "Miss Outgoing". Jill missed the first 2 or 3 weeks of school due to a "catchy illness" where were you this summer Jill? You can always tell where Jill is with her famous expression ringing throughout the halls "I have other things to do!" These things most likely include chemistry experiments or going to Squires. We're sure Mrs. Sabbadani will never forget Jill and E.P.'s "multiplying wrecks" experiment. Well Jill, our future Nurse, good luck in the years to come and, keep in touch, with the famous class of '80!

SUZANNE BREAKY: Suzanne Julia Breaky came to B.H. in the school year of 78-79. We soon found out that she was not as shy as she pretended. This year she will be remembered for her purple hair on the night of our school dance. She became well known for her punctuality??? She is a very caring person. She plans to become a lawyer and will probably be a very good one. Well Sue we'll miss you and your Common Room actions!!! But good luck in the future and hope you stay in touch with the class of '80.

CHRISTINA GREENAWAY: What can be said about 'Chris'? She joined us 4 years ago at the beginning of grade 9, and made herself a comfortable niche in our memories and our hearts. Academically, she shines among us and occasionally manages to blind us with the light of her accomplishments. A member of the Reach for the Top A team, Chris made her television debut and although her team lost, her effort was immeasurable. Chris has plans to enter the University of Winnipeg next year, where we, her classmates, are sure she will succeed and progress to some fame. Now is the time to say, this is it, kid. We'll miss you and your warm smile and cheerful voice. Remember the fire extinguisher, Chris?? Best of luck always and remember to watch out for low operating tables!!

NEERU GUPTA: Neeru Gupta - "Ru" has spent a grand total of 8 years at B.H. She disappeared after grades 1 and 2 only to return in grade 7. Her stay has been marked by consistently high academic achievement and willingness to assist fellow students in any subject. One of Mrs. Sabbadini's terrors Ru was under the misconception that the physics/chemistry lab was meant for 'wild' experiments and dances on the front desk. After these antics, however, she became more subdued in french class, where she slipped into a bon francais Parisien. Her melodious voice, and abilities to sing soprano, alto, descant and melody, often made it confusing to decide where she should be put. Chosen Miss India for Folklorama 1980, Neeru's beauty and talents have not gone unnoticed outside B.H. Next year she intends to study for medicine at U. of M. (Hope the mischievous streak doesn't come out when you are a practicing surgeon, Ru!) May you continue to meet success - your friends will remember you.

Jill, Sue, Tracy, Lydia

TRACY MACONICHIE: Tracy first graced our halls in grade seven, a little girl with ponytails and freckles. Well needless to say, we've come a long way, haven't we Tracy. "Maconichie" will always be remembered by her outstanding literary and theatrical talents. She has been a member of the drama and Reach for the Top teams and excelled in both. Many of Tracy's idiosyncracies will be missed, lunches will never be the same without Tracy's diet soft drinks. English class just wouldn't be English class without Tracy's opinionated voice booming above the rest, nor will we forget speed skating or Eric Heidon, will we Tracy? One could always see Tracy's scattered notes cluttering up the grade 12 bench and she was forever seen at 8:30 a.m. scrambling to finish those last few questions for history class. Amazingly enough though, through the confusion and disorganization she always managed to get her homework done. Tracy plans to pursue a career in computer science, if she can pass the calculus course, or she may also enter the English field. Whatever she decides to do we're sure she'll succeed. Good luck in the years to come "Maconichie".

LYDIA ODHIAMBO: Lydia joined us four short years ago from Kenya Africa. For her first couple of years, Lydia joined us as a boarder, then as a day student, living at her aunts, and finally this year she lived at her own home, as her parents also moved to Winnipeg this summer. During grades ten and eleven, Lydia was famous for her disco dancing and lessons throughout the halls and common room of B.H. Lydia is leaving us to pursue a career in interior design. The best of luck in the future, Lydia!

TRACY MALONE: Tracy joined the B.H. family in 1974, and it didn't take long for her to adopt the craziness of her classmates. Not a day went by without a laugh or smile from Tracy. The familiar pattern of her TINY feet will be missed next year. Tracy was the only one that didn't spend endless days and nights wondering who to take to grad. (Congratulations Tracy!) Tracy has also been a great asset to the sports life at B.H. as she not only participated as a member, but also as a coach. Her future plans include attending the School of Crafts and Design at Sheridan College. We all look forward to the day Tracy returns to B.H. We know that you'll be a great success. Good luck Trace!

SUSAN LEIBROCK: The B.H. halls were first blessed with Susan's catching grin in grade 8. After living in California for two years, she returned to B.H. to finish her grade eleven and twelve studies - you just couldn't keep away, could you Sue? This frequent patron at Squires always made her presence known when the grade twelves were up to their mischievous antics. Sue will always be remembered for her juicy pieces of gossip and her famous yellow Datsun - what character! And no one will ever forget her grade eleven party!! After grad Sue plans to return to her California home - we'll all visit you Sue! There she plans to become an occupational therapist at the University of California in San Francisco. Good Luck Susan!

Tracy,

Eva,

Lyala,

Mary

EVA FUNG: Eva joined the B.H. "nut" house this year from Hong Kong. At the start of the year no one knew whether Eva's last name was Fung or Phone, it was soon discovered to be Phone. She is always very quiet, but no one can forget the fits that she throws in physics. Eva has already been accepted at Queen's University. Good Luck in the future.

MARY WATERS: Mary joined our B.H. family two years ago. Her "cheerful image" is characterized by her perpetual warm, sweet and encouraging smile. People who have seen her drawings and art works can never deny that Mary is extremely creative and artistic. Mary's response and enthusiasm during Biology class show that she is interested in this field also. Right! She's considering to go into nursing. With her analytical mind, patience and prudence, we are sure that Mary can accomplish her goal. Not only is Mary a smart girl academically, but she is also doing fine in her "love life" which we all are concerned with as she shares her romance with us!

LYALA DOUCETTE: Lyala joined the B.H. family in Grade 9. She spent a half-year in residence and more than made her mark. Lyala and her blanket were found in the common room more often than not. Lyala's thanks to the graduating class was a Bar-b-que, held at her home at the end of the graduation weekend. She thanked them for an excellent four years, and we're thanking her. Good luck in your pursuits, we'll miss you!

Joc, Cecily, Megan, Anne, Shelley

JOCELYN PIEFER: Our electric cow-girl, straight from Nipawin Sask., joined the B.H. family two years ago. With a little help from Kermit, Piefer was Ballater's 79-80 "Super" - House head. As one of the class athletes, we always wondered if those immortal sweats ran on their own steam. Joc was a coffee-queen attendant and was always trying to quit ... She never stopped interrupting with excuses for her "mean streak", or obnoxious chomps of trident. Our Arizona-princess will be missed as she is off to tamper with computers at perhaps U. of M. We wish you the best of luck Jocy-poo!

CECILY SHELDON: Cecily joined our Balmoral Hall family as a resident member from Ear Falls, Ontario in grade 9. We have transformed that shy little country girl into a rambunctious city city girl. Whee can be found at the Roller Rink nearly every weekend. Cec was never one to miss house games in fact we could always find her in the centre of the gym floor cheering her Braemar house. Cec was also a member of the Junior Varsity Volleyball Team for two years. Cecily plans to enter the faculty of Nursing this fall.

MEGAN GLASSCO: "Meags", our athletic Craig Gowan House Head has been here since kindergarten and, come to think about it, she's still the same size; the only thing that grew was her mouth. She can always be heard first ... and then seen. What would Monday morning be like without Megan's favorite "Andilée, Andilée, Aribah, Aribah!" (probably very tollerable!) Who could forget her talented acts of sheer coordination such as moving her desk from the back of the English room to the front. Her ambition is to become a lawyer and she'll probably be successful if she doesn't trip on the rug when it's her turn to cross-examine the witness. Being at B.H. since kindergarten, it's hard to decide who will miss who the most: Megan will miss the school or the school will miss Megan! Good Luck and see you in Law School!

ANNE O'SULLIVAN: Anne, from Ontario joined the residence crew in Grade 11. Since then, she has been an active member of school life by participating in such activities as yearbook, choir and drama. This year Anne has been the second library prefect of B.H. and has done a wonderful job! Anne has been a warm and friendly person and is definitely famous at B.H. for her unceasing smile that lights even the darkest corner. By simply considering the enormous appetite that Anne possesses, one may wonder, "How does that girl keep such a trim figure?" Well it just so happens that Anne is a believer in the fitness of the mind as well as the body. Not only has she done exceptionally well academically also making her debut in "Reach for the Top," but she can often be seen jogging down Wellington Cres. through rain, sleet or snow - and loving it! She and Mme. Dammerman take the cake for being the cross-country skiers of the year. Anne is joining the U. of Trent in September to pursue a career in Political Science. Keep smiling Anne, your friends will miss you.

SHELLEY MATTHEWS: Our recruit from Saint Mary's came to B.H. in Grade 10, shy and quiet. Now she's in Grade 12, outgoing and loquacious. Shelley has distinguished herself in all sports. She even took on the formidable task of teaching her little "darlings" gymnastics. On the previous ski trip to Thunder Bay, Shelley was finally able to perfect her parallel skiing. One thing that we'll never be able to figure out is Shelley's mysterious rash in the winter. The cold could not have been the cause as Shelley was always kept warm with an enviable wardrobe of hand-knit sweaters. We all know Shelley cannot wait to attend the U. of M. to study Physical Education and "guys". We'll miss you, Luv-ya!
